HEARINGS, MEETINGS, LICENSES

C.O.A. Director Andrea Priest reviewed the Senior Tax Work-off program. She is recommending the expansion of the program by an additional ten participants. If there were 20 slots, with trained seniors, they could repeat their assignments and provide greater service to the Town departments. These services are provided to fourteen participating departments. There could actually be room for 28 seniors. There were over 300 hours donated by the senior volunteers in excess of the hours for which they were paid.

Barbara Erickson spoke about the availability of funds in the Overlay account for the Senior Tax Work-off program. Every year there is upwards of $80,000 left over in the Overlay account. Upon motion by Selectman Spataro and seconded by Selectman McKinnon, Board voted unanimously to expand the program to 20 positions.

TOWN MANAGER'S REPORT
